

Dear Commissioners:

Chairman Powell often says we must "validate or eliminate" the FCC market rules. I think the burden of proof rests not upon supporters of the rules, but upon those commissioners favoring rule change, to show how the proposed changes would benefit the American public, who own the airwaves.